

I do not want businesses or banks with which I have had a prior business relationship to be allowed to use telemarketing to call me at home. They need to observe the no-call list! Telemarketers invade my private and personal time with my family. If I want an update on services from these companies, I will call them!